Habit-forming Medicines.

Whatever may be the fact as to many of the so-called patent medicines containing injurious ingredients as broadly published in some journals of more or less influence, this publicity has certainly been of great benefit in arousing needed attention to this subject. It has, in a considerable measure, resulted in the most intelligent people avoiding such foods and medicines as may be fairly suspected of containing the injurious ingredients complained of. Recognizing this fact some time ago, Dr. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., "took time by the forelock," as it were, and published broadcast all the ingredients of which his popular medicines are composed. Thus he has completely forestalled all harping critics and all opposition that might otherwise be urged against his medicines, because they are NOW OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. Furthermore, from the formula printed on every bottle wrapper, it will be seen that these medicines contain no alcohol or other habit-forming drugs. Neither do they contain any narcotics or injurious agents, their ingredients being purely vegetable, extracted from the roots of medicinal plants found growing in the depths of our American forests and of well recognized curative virtues.

Instead of alcohol, which even in small portions long continued, as in obstinate cases of diseases, becomes highly objectionable from its tendency to produce a craving for stimulants, Dr. Pierce employs chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine, which of itself is a valuable remedy in many cases of chronic diseases, being a superior demulcent, antiseptic, antiferment and supporting nutritive. It enhances the curative action of the Golden Seal root, Stone root, Black Cherrybark and Bloodroot, contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," in all bronchial, throat and lung affections attended with severe coughs. As will be seen from the writings of the eminent Drs. Grover Coe, of New York; Bartholow, of Jefferson Medical College, Phila.; Scudder, of Cincinnati; Ellingwood, of Chicago; Hale, of Chicago, and others, who stand as leaders in their several schools of practice, the foregoing agents are the very best ingredients that Dr. Pierce could have chosen to make up his famous "Discovery" for the cure of not only bronchial, throat and lung affections, but also of chronic catarrh in all its various forms wherever located.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Took Stitches in Man's Heart.

For 20 minutes the pulsating heart of William Wyatt, a negro, who had been stabbed in a struggle over a knife, was held in the hands of two physicians at the Pennsylvania Hospital in Philadelphia on Saturday night while Dr. Richard Hart, the hospital surgeon, sewed six stitches in the organ and then replaced it in the man's body. Wyatt, who was at first thought to have been fatally injured, was reported to be resting comfortably yesterday and the physicians believe the operation was successful.

It was the third time that such a delicate operation has been performed in Philadelphia. When Dr. Hart examined the negro he knew there was just about one chance in a thousand of saving his life; that chance was in performing an operation on the negro's heart. He consulted with the other physicians and the operation was decided upon.

Wyatt was etherized and Dr. Hart made a long incision in the negro's left side, sufficiently large for the surgeon to plunge his hand inside and take out the man's heart. He placed the organ upon the outstretched palms of two assistants, and there it lay throbbing vigorously as it sent the blood coursing through the arteries of the negro's body. An examination showed that the knife had inflicted a wound in the organ measuring an inch and a quarter in length. Fortunately, the injury was on one side and had missed the big arteries. Dr. Hart was compelled to sew six stitches in the organ.

This had to be done very slowly and carefully, and in order that the heart action should not be interfered with the surgeon was compelled to make the stitches between the pulsations. When the operation was concluded the heart was put back in place and the external wound sewed up. Although the negro lost a considerable quantity of blood, his recovery is looked for.

Queen Bars Astor's Bride.

Mrs. Langhorne-Astor has not been presented at court as a bride, and this has given rise to the report that Queen Alexandra has made absolute her rule not to receive any woman who has been a party to a divorce, even the most innocent of parties.

When the Queen makes up her mind her august spouse cannot move her. She has never forgotten Lord Rothschild for having invited to meet her, at a reception he gave three years ago, a very prominent New York divorcee and her new husband.

However, it is assumed that King Edward has not strongly asserted himself, seeing that William Waldorf Astor's daughter-in-law is concerned. His majesty is resentful because the elder Astor has never shown him any attention.

Ambassador Whitelaw Reid intervened to secure young Mrs. Astor's presentation, but in vain, although he was aided by Lord Althorpe, the Lord Chamberlain, who is a special friend of the Queen.

Not to be presented at court is a rather serious drawback to society people. But sympathy is so strongly with young Waldorf Astor, who is extremely popular and respected, and with his bride, who is greatly admired, that if they really wish to secure it the necessary permission cannot be withheld permanently

William Waldorf Astor was so ill for some days that two specialists constantly attended him. He is better now, but he had to postpone until July 4 and 6 two concerts he had arranged to give, in which grand opera stars will sing. If he has not recovered by July 4 the honors will be done by the Waldorf Astors, who linger during their waning honeymoon at Cliveden.

Spent a Fortune.

Joseph N. Ferguson, a former well known resident of Ogdensburg, N. Y., died last week at Mount Clemens, Mich. Several years ago his father kept a grocery and liquor store in Ogdensburg. Joseph left home early in youth, saying he would never return until he had made his fortune.

Ten years later a fine private yacht steamed into the dock at Riverside Park at Ogdensburg, and Joseph Ferguson stepped off with his handsome bride, the daughter of a wealthy Pittsburg banker. Mr. Ferguson sported diamonds and handed out money with a lavish hand. He gave wine parties aboard his well-equipped yacht and was a most hospitable host.

His next visit to Ogdensburg was in August, 1903, when he applied at the city jail for a night's lodging. To one of the policemen who recognized him he said he had gone through a fortune of $100,000, that his wife had left him and that he was "all in." Former friends supplied him with meal tickets while he remained at Ogdensburg, and at his request secured passage for him on a freight boat going to Cleveland. He braced up again, became clerk at the Avery Hotel at Mount Clemens, and caught the fancy of a Cleveland widow, who married him. After the wedding Ferguson got into trouble by shooting at the clerk who succeeded him in the hotel. He again took to drink and the widow dropped him.

He finally returned to Mount Clemens, was arrested for begging drinks on the streets from former boon companions and died a few hours after being placed in the cell. He was 46 years old.

A Miraculous Cure.

The following statement, by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranteed. 50c and $1.00 at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Bonaventure Beatified.

Bonaventure, of Barceonia, who founded several retreats in Italy, the chief one being in the Palatin, under the pontificate of Alexander VII., was beatified in Rome yesterday. He is credited with having performed many miracles, some of them emulating those performed by Christ, and also wonderful cures of cardinals and other personages in Rome. He died in 1684. His case was approved in 1775, but the beatification was only decided upon recently.

It is said that Cardinal Vives y Tuto, one of the Spanish cardinals, brought pressure to bear upon the Pope to hasten the beatification. The ceremony and the decorations of St. Peter's were almost identical with those of previous beatifications, the only change being in the pictures, which represented S. Bonaventure preventing the capture of a Spanish ship by Dutch pirates, and cures effected through his intercession. The former was in front of the church, the latter on the sides.

The decree was read in the morning. The Pope decended to the basilica in the afternoon and venerated Bonaventure's relics. Owing to rumors that anarchist's would attempt the life of the Pope, and especially to a letter that was sent to the Pontiff, extraordinary precautions were taken. The number of tickets of admission to the ceremony was limited, crowds of detectives were present and the troops lining the church was increased.

Bomb in the Subway.

An attempt was made last night to explode a bomb in a man hole of the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, in front of the power house at east Seventy-fourth street, New York, which furnishes current to the subway. One man, Joseph Bartky, twenty-two years of age, was arrested, the police say, as he was about to light the fuse of the bomb as it lay on the manhole cover. Two companions who were with him escaped, and the police have sent out a general alarm for their capture. On Bartky were found three other bombs, all being of a uniform size, the shape of a baseball, but little larger. The prisoner declared that he and his friends had found the bombs at a pleasure resort yesterday and brought them home to set off later. They went in front of the power house to do this. As the feed wires, which pass through the manhole in question, carry the main current for the subway, a wrecking of the hole would probably have put the underground road out of commission for many hours.

Race Suicide.

Not a birth has been recorded among the members of the Chicago Chapter of the Theosophical Society within three years. This is the statement of Mrs. J. M. Henderson, who has been a member of the cult for that length of time, and who claims she knows every one of the 400 women who compose the local branch. She does not say the members are childless. She says many were parents when they accepted the tenets of the cult, but the stork immediately cut them off its visiting list and has never seen fit to reinstatethem. This same woman is authority for the statement that the members are not only violently opposed to the antirace suicide teachings of President Roosevelt, but regard his words as both impertinent and uncalled for. Fewer births and better children is the motto of the society, according to this woman. This remarkable state of affairs was revealed by the expulsion of Charles W. Leadbetter, who was said to have taugh the boys and girls to avoid marriage as they would pestilence.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, JUNE 11, 1906.

AS HE has proved himself in the fight against a proper meat inspection law the most formidable opponent of the public interest and the most powerful friend in Congress of the beef trust, so Speaker Candon, acknowledged by virtue of his position to be the republican leader in the House, is demonstrating in his treatment of the pure food bill the same indifference to its welfare that has characterized his attitude with respect to the meat question. It has now become manifest that only such aroused public sentiment as has made possible the passage of a meat inspection bill will force the Speaker and those who stand with him, holding the House in check, to permit the pure food measure to come before the House for consideration. The Speaker has denied this. He has sent some threatening messages to Western newspapers that have criticised him with the respect to the matter, and has announced that when the committee on interstate commerce wants the bill considered it will come up. The pure food bill is in the hands of Representative Hepburn, chairman of the Interstate Commerce Committee, and the Speaker's declaration would appear to throw all blame for the failure of the measure until the present time, upon Mr. Hepburn.

THE CAB service that has been conducted in this city for the past few months, it is said, has not been remunerative, and today a change in fares has been made from ten to twenty-five cents. This is a considerable advance, (one hundred and fifty per cent.) and it is doubtful whether the public will submit, as it is a higher price than is charged in any city in the State. It is feared that poor service and too many employees was the cause of the failure of the enterprise, rather than a lack of support by the public. Ten cents is a low fare, but twenty-five is too high. Cabs rendering prompt service at a fifteen cent fare rate, it is believed, would pay the owners.

TOMORROW elections will be held in the various cities throughout the State for members of the several city councils. In Alexandria the democratic nominees for both brances of Council have no opposition save in the Fourth ward, where an independent republican is a candidate for the Common Council. The two democratic nominees in this ward are at present members of Council and hold the positions of chairmen of the committees on finance and light, and it would be a serious matter for the city if either should be defeated. It is therefore the duty of the democratic voters of that ward to go to the polls and see that the nominees of their party are returned.

THE delegation of liberals from Panama now urge this government to appoint a confidental agent to look over the political situation in Panama, and make suggestions to that government for the fair conduct of the elections. If this delegation of "liberals" is here to secure points concerning the carrying of elections it has come to the proper place, for the administration knows everything about such matters, believing, as it does, that the end justifies the means.

IN his address to the republican clubs of South Dakota, at Sioux Falls last week, Secretary of the Treasury Shaw made the positive prophecy that tariff revision would come "after the next inauguration of a President by way of an extraordinary session of Congress." The inference is that there will be no recommendation made by the President during this term. The republicans' date for revising the tariff is the Spanish mananna—which, with them, means never.

A CENSUS bulletin issued last week shows the total output of American steel and rolling mills in 1905 amounted in value to $673,965,026. This is an increase of 13 per cent. since 1900. Still the steel trust says the tariff must be retained in order to protect this industry.

IT IS clearly the duty of the city democratic committee to see that the party nominees for Council are elected tomorrow.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, June 11.

The House committee on agriculture went into executive session this morning to consider legislation designed to correct the evils recently complained of in the packing house business. There are three distinct measures before the committee: The Beveridge amendment, which places the cost of inspection on packers; the Wadsworth substitute, which provides for inspection at government expense, and a compromise proposition embodied in a bill suggested by Judge Cowan, representative of the cattle interests. The last named plan is that Congress shall this year appropriate $2,000,000 for inspection and that next year, if a sufficient amount is not appropriated the Secretary of Agriculture may make up the deficit by asssessing fees on the packers.

"In the judgment of the committee, Mr. Smoot is no more entitled to a seat in the Senate than he would be if he were associating in polygamous co-habitation with a plurality of wives." This statement is made in the course of the report of the majority of the Senate committee on privileges and elections which was presented to the Senate today by Chairman Burrows after an investigation lasting over two years. The report covers 30 printed pages and concludes as follows: "It follows, as a necessary conclusion from these facts, that Mr. Smoot is not entitled to a seat in the Senate as a Senator from the the State of Utah." The minority report was presented by Mr. Foraker. It holds that there is no just ground for expelling Smoot or for finding him disqualified to hold the seat he occupies. His election was regular. His private character is irreproachable. He is not a polygamist, and has been noted for his opposition to plural marriages. So far as mere belief and membership in the Mormon Church are concerned he is fully within his rights and privileges under the guarantee of religious freedom given by the constitution. Senator Bailey, after the reports were presented, stated on the floor that he, in the main, concurred in the majority report save that Senator Smoot could not be expelled from the Senate unless a resolution of expulsion was adopted by the Senate. This would require a two-thirds vote.

Speaker Cannon declared today that the House would pass a meat inspection bill "for the best interests of the producer and consumer and calculated to restore the confidence of the people in the eight per cent of the products of the packinghouses which has been placed under suspicion by the Government investigators." The President had talks over meat this morning with the Speaker, Senators Beveridge and Hopkins, and Representative Henry, of Connecticut, a member of the House agricultural committee. "The Government investigators" said the Speaker, "have declared that 92 per cent of the packinghouse products are above suspicion. It shall be our aim to prepare a law which will set at rest all doubt as to the other per cent; that will provide for an inspection as rapid as consistent with thoroughness; as cheap as it can be made with regard to proper scrutiny of all animals ot all stages of preparation; and one that will work the least inconvenience to all interests concerned." The Speaker added with a laugh at Senator Hopkins' expense that the law would be passed "just as soon as a deliberative House and a non-deliberative Senate can do the work" Senator Beveridge said after his talk with the President that the latter was not in a compromising mood over the bill. You just ask him yourself if he is ready to compromise," he exclaimed in reply to a question. As to the alleged unconstitutionality of the Beveridge bill he exclaimed "That makes me tired" and added that if it was unconstitutional the present inspection law for foreign export meats is unconstitutional as well. Mr. Henry of Connecticut said that the House would pass a bill "along the lines of the Beveridge amendment."

The railroad rate bill will come up in the House, tomorrow. The committee on rules will bring in a rule providing that the subject be sent back to conference and this will be adopted after debate. The matter would have come up today, but for the slim attendance.

Senator Knox, of Pennsylvania, had a talk with the President about Panama canal matters this morning. "I think that the sentiment in favor of a long canal is growing. The lock type will be finally chosen, I have no doubt, for all considerations of cost and time are against the sea level idea. As the Senators are all very well informed on the subject I do not believe that the date of adjournment will be deferred by the discussion of the canal subject."

The President sent to the Senate today the nomination of Edward McCormick, of Berryville, Va., to be postmaster at that place.

Induced to enter the navy under the false impression that it was a Godly environment, J. Matthews Fortner, of Pickens county, S. C., deserted within a year of his enlistment and proceeded to study for the ministry at Furman University, Greenville. There he was arrested after he had been enrolled as a theological student for a year, and now he has asked President Roosevelt to pardon him. This in brief is the history that was recited to the President today by Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire and Representative Johnson of South Carolina who called at the White House to ask for executive clemency for Fortner. The President was greatly interested in the narrative, but said that the law would have to take its course. After the Court Martial which tries Fortner for desertion disposes of his case, the President said he would perhaps look into the matter.

Disorders in Russia

Chief of Police Derkatchoff, against whose life several attempts had been made, was shot and killed Saturday by several unknown persons while he was out driving at Bielostok, Russia. His coachman was severely wounded. At the same time the secret police were attacked in another portion of the town, one of them being wounded.

Six persons were killed in the rioting at Warsaw Saturday. The disturbances are reported to have been organized to avenge the workman Marczseckwi, who was executed in the citadel Saturday morning for attempting to kill a police officer.

The London Tribune's St. Petersburg correspondent reports the arrest of several noncommissioned officers of the Cavalry Guard and the Probajensky Guard regiments have been confined to barracks, while the Novocherkasky regiment has been broken up and distributed to the various towns in consequence of the discovery of the revolutionary literature in its quarters.

Visit of Senator Daniel.

Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, who went to Philadelphia Saturday as the guest of William A. Glasgow, counsel for the Interstate Commerce Commission in the railroad investigation, dined informally that night with a few members of the Southern Club. Mr. Glasgow was expected to be present, but it is understood that he went to Atlantic City for a little rest after his week of ceaseless grind of railroad graft exposure. After dinner, at a smoker, the Senator met all who drifted into the club. He declared that his visit was purely a social one.

News of the Day.

News was brought to New Orleans by steamer yesterday of the killing of Lee Christmas, an American filibuster, in Honduras.

Government experts state that the cottonseed production of the South last year amounted to 4,500,000 tons, valued at $75,000,000.

Three men were drowned in New York bay yesterday, when the yacht Lottie, with a fishing party on board, was capsized during a sudden storm.

Congressman and Mrs. Longworth arrived in London, yesterday and in the evening a dinner was given in their honor at Dorchester House by Ambassand Mrs. Reid.

In the House on Saturday Mr. Clark, of Florida, stated that the superintendent of St. Elizabeth's Asylum, near Washington, had the personal use of three carriages, two horses and two automobiles, all at public expense.

Practical jokers at Fairfield, Iowa, Saturday night obtained a circus elephant, labelled it "G. O. P." and drove it into the republican convention. In the stampede which followed several were injured and many escaped by the windows.

Three hundred and twenty-five warships of the British navy have been mobilized off the English coast for naval manuevers and mimic warfare to test the efficiency of the new admiralty system for the defense of the British coasts and commerce.

Because her former husband wooed her after she divorced him, and subsequently married his pretty stenographer, Mrs. Gertrude White, of Chicago, is suing Garland T. White, a wealthy merchant, for $25,000 damages for breach of promise.

Sometime between midnight and sunrise during the present week Charles L. Tucker is to meet death in the electric chair at the Charlestown, Mass., prison, for the murder of Mabel Page, at Weston, that State, Governor Guild having refused to interfere with the sentence.

Foster Dwight Coburn, who was on Monday appointed by Gov. Hoch to be United States senator, succeeding Joseph R. Burton, has decided not to accept the appointment. Gov. Hoch has offered the vacancy to Judge A. W. Benson, of Ottawa, who has accepted the position and will start for Washington this week.

The report of the retirement of the Goremykin ministry was definitely killed late Saturday night, when the premier returned to St Petersburg fro a Peterhof, where he went that afternoon for an audience of the Emperor, and made the statement that he did not tender his resignation and had no expectation for the present of retirement from his position.

Wm. Ashburn, about 32 years old, who resides at Reedsville, Va., but who was stopping at the boarding house of Mrs. Charles H. Hughes, 813 K street northwest, Washington, was taken to the Emergency Hospital in a critical condition yesterday. He had inhaled illuminating gas while he slept Saturday night. The physicians at the hospital hold out no hopes for his recovery.

The jury in the Kabal murder trial were surprised at Appleton, Wis., Saturday, when Dr. John Golden, of Chicago, testified to burning a human body January 23, on the McCarthy farm, to demonstrate that a body could be cremated with a bonfire, as it is alleged, Kabal cremated the body of McCarthy. Golden testified that the body cremated by him was that of a human about the size of McCarthy.

The belief that his former friend had caused an estrangement between himself and his wife is said to have been the motive which prompted William J. Dittmar, whose home was formerly in Baltimore, to shoot and kill David Howard, another Baltimorean, in Somerville, N. J., yesterday. Both men were employed in the iron works there. The shooting followed the leaving of Dittmar by his wife, who is now in Baltimore. The crime was a deliberate one.

One of the most remarkable religious demonstrations ever witnessed in New England occurred yesterday when the new $2,000,000 Christian Science temple, in the Back Bay district of Boston was dedicated. From every State in the Union, and from all parts of the world, came members of that faith, to be present at the dedicatory services. It was estimated that more than 40,000 Christsan Scientists were in Boston yesterday. Six services were held to accommodate the vast throngs.

The Baltimore and Ohio roundhouse at Ivy City near Washington, was struck by lightning during the storm last Saturday evening and collapsed, burying two Italian laborers, who are still in the ruins, and Charles Gannon, of Baltimore, a locomotive engineer, was rescued seriously injured, as was Charles Oromataro, of Washington. Thirty-eight Italian laborers escaped from the house uninjured. Many houses in Washington were unroofed by the high winds which prevailed. Trees in the Capitol grounds were seriously damaged.

The consular and diplomatic appropriation bill carrying $3,154,594, was reported to the Senate, Saturday. The Senate passed the bill prohibiting federal corporations making campaign contributions. The Senate added an amendment to the District appropriation bill forbidding the commissioners to use the government carriages for their private uses. The provision in the sundry civil bill appropriating $25,000 for the President's travelling expenses was ruled out on a point of order made by Mr. John Sharp Williams in the House.

Three thousand Christian Socialists, after a meeting in the city hall in Vienna, yesterday afternoon, made a demonstration against the Hungarian Ministry building, where the Hungarian delegation was sitting, breaking the windows. The police had difficulty in dispersing the demonstrators. During the demonstration, Dr. Wekerle, the Hungarian premier, and Herr Kossuth came to the the windows, but were obliged to beat a speedy retreat, as their appearance redoubled the violence of the demonstrators. It is believed the real motive of the anti-semitic leaders was less opposition to the Hungarians than to universal suffrage, which, they believe, will strengthen the socialists in Parliament at their expense.

Thirty-four Christian Scientists were injured through the overturning of a large sight-seeing automobile in the Brighton district near Boston; yesterday. Every person on the car received injuries, more or less serious. The party had been making a sightseeing trip through the suburbs, and were descending Commonwealth Hill. Suddenly the brake broke and the machine ran away down the steep grade. Near the bottom of the hill the car jumped to the side of the street and tore through a fence into the grounds of the Kenilworth Golf Club, where it overturned. Most of the party were thrown clear of the machine and sustained nothing more serious than bruises and scratches, but those most seriously injured were caught under the car.

There were severe storms in many points in western Pennsylvania Saturday afternoon and night. At Monongahela the storm was accompanied by a high wind that uprooted trees and blew down many small buildings. A number of residences were struck by lightning. At Beaver Falls hail stones of immense size fell, doing inestimable damage to windows, fruit trees, and crops in general. At Kittanning, Jas. Mitchell and his fifteen-year-old son, who were sitting on a porch, were struck and killed by lightning and the house set on fire. Death was also dealt by the storm at Punxsutawney, where Clyde Blose, aged eighteen, and Bert Weiss, aged twenty, were struck and killed by lightning while standing in the doorway of a barn. A score of barns and houses were struck by lightning within a few miles of Punxsutawney.

Virginia News.

H. H. Poston, seventy-seven years old, died yesterday morning at his home in Herndon. He had been ill about a year.

Mr. Marshall McCormick, of Clarke county, has sold his fine saddle horse, "Joe Wheeler," for $750 to M. T. Birch, a well-known racehorse man, of Washington.

Mrs. Lynn Chancellor, wife of Dr. S. C. Chancellor, died yesterday at the University of Virginia Hospital, where she was operated on some 10 days ago for appendicitis.

Mrs. Rebecca Jane Atkins, widow of Robert R. Atkins, died Saturday at her home at White Post, Clarke county after a lingering illness, aged eighty-seven. She was Miss Pullam, of Rappahannock county, before her marriage.

Mrs. M. Sheffey Peters, widow of Col. William E Peters, emeritus professor of Latin in the University of Virginia, died suddenly Saturday afternoon. She was the daughter of the late James White Sheffey, of Marion. One son survives.

Miss Rosa Johnston Tucker, eldest daughter of Hon. Henry St. George Tucker, was married at Lexington Saturday evening to Silas Boxley Mason, of Frankfort, Ky. Rev. Dallas Tucker, of Bedford City, officiated. The bride was given away by her father.

The postoffice at Newmarket, eighteen miles north of Harrisonburg, was robbed at an early hour yesterday morning by a gang of "yeggmen." The safe was blown open with nitroglycerin, and the office furniture, as well as the safe door wrecked. The burglars secured only a small sum of money and a quantity of stamps.

Several thousand people visited Appomatox Courthouse yesterday to witness the unveiling there of a monument to the deceased Confederate soldiers of that county. Speeches were make by Governor Swanson, Congressman Flood, Judge Hundley and others. The Lynchburg Home Guards and City Band took part in the exercises.

Eleven men were blown to pieces and five others were seriously injured by the explosion Saturday of a dynamite plant near Pequea, Pa., along the Susquehanna river. The accident was one of the most horrible in the history of Lancaster county. The victims were literally torn to pieces, not enough remaining of a single body to make identification possible. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Capt. W. H. March, of Reidsville, convicted in the United States Court Friday of imprisoning J. W. Gallagher on his oyster dredge, and acquitted of the charges of cruelty and withholding food from Gallagher, was fined $50 and costs by Judge Waddill in Norfolk yesterday. Judge Waddill, however, suspended sentence until Captain March could go to his home and raise the amount of the fine.

Frank Sprouse, who recently escaped from the Augusta county jail, Saturday, after a quarrel and a fight killed Conner Boyd, foreman at the Virginia Portland Cement Works, at Forwick, and narrowly escaped lynching by a mob. He was captured after a desperate struggle during which he was shot and is now in jail. The shooting of Boyd was the result of a feud which long had existed between the two men.

The charges made by the "outs" against Superintendent Foster, of the Eastern State Hospital, have not been proven. Even those who criticise other officers of the institution acknowledge this to be a fact. The directors have not escaped, for the questions regarding the awarding of contracts have been searching, and have shown that there has been waste in the purchasing and lack of intelligence in awarding contracts for supplies. The great point that has been clearly shown is that the negro hospital of the State has been given advantages by the State legislature that have been refused the white asylum.

Terrific Hailstorm.

Apple Pie Ridge, Frederick county, the home of the most valuable apple orchard in that part of Virginia, was swept from one end to the other by a terrific hailstorm last evening. Hailstones as large as hulled walnuts fell with great force and the wheat, corn, hay and fruit crops on more than half a dozen farms were almost totally ruined. The storm passed over a rich agricultural belt, and it is estimated that the loss will be fully $10,000. The corn and hay crops were totally destroyed, valuable apple orchards were laid in waste and peaches, pears, and other growing fruits were beaten from the trees. The wheat was ruined in some places in the path of the storm and badly injured in others. All windows in dozens of houses were smashed and half grown chickens were killed by the hailstones. The storm was the most severe that has been known in that part of Frederick county for 50 years.

DIED.

At the home of his parents, 513 north Alfred street, June 10th, 1906, RAYMOND NEVELL HENDERSON, aged 7 months.

So sweetly the flower that scents the morn,
But withers in the rising day,
Thus lovely was this infant's dawn,
That swiftly fled its life away.

Today's Telegraphic News

President Agrees with the Governor.

Boston, June 11.—The following telegram has been received by Governor Guild from the President:

White House, Washington, June 10. Governor Curtis Guild, jr. Boston, Mass:

Have been requested on behalf of certain parties in Boston to interfere with the execution of Tucker, it being alleged that it is my duty so to do, inasmuch as I have the power under the federal laws. No showing has been made to me that I have such power, but without regard to this, I desire to state to you that, in my judgment, your decision not to interfere with the carrying out of the sentence of Tucker seems to me entirely sound and commands my hearty sympathy. It seems peculiarly a case in which there should be no interference with the carrying out of the sentence.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

Charles T. Tucker, who is condemned to death for the murder of Mabel Page, was not executed this morning, as was originally planned. Brought face to face with what at last he is convinced is certain death, the young man has had a complete change of heart, and at his own request was baptized into the Methodist Episcopal Church faith this morning. It was to permit of the ceremony that Warden Briggs postponed the execution. It is understood that Tucker will go to the electric chair after midnight tonight. He still protests his innocence.

Mr. Bryan's Views.

Berlin, June 11.—Wm. J. Bryan came to Berlin today and found the newspaper men waiting for him with the news that a number of state conventions had declared for him as the democratic candidate for President in 1908, and that a well developed boom for him had been started rolling. "This is very sudden," said Mr. Bryan smiling in a manner which seems to indicate that the news was pleasing to him. Mr. Bryan firmly declined to talk as to the nomination or whether he would accept, saying the time for the nomination convention was still far away. Discussing the political situation in the United States and the tendency in some quarters to socialism, Mr. Bryan made this distinction between democratic principles and socialism. He said: "Democracy recognizes competition as legitimate and tries to protect the competitive principle from attack. Socialism sees competition as an evil to be eliminated by public ownership and operation of all means of production and distribution. While this distinction between democracy and socialism should not be overlooked, the democratic platform must be one of progress and reform and not merely of opposition to republican politics or socialistic ideas. Our first action is absolute for the regulation of corporations in general. It is necessary that the party shall be free from any suspicion of alliance with the corporate interests that have been dominating American politics. To this end, campaign contributions must be eliminated to those who have the public interest to advance." Mr. Bryan discussed the meat scandal in a few brief sentences.

Officials Attacked.

Siedlic, Poland, June 11.—An attack was made yesterday by terrorists on the Burgomaster, secretary of the police board and chief of the staff in the Governor's office. As the three officials were walking through the streets they were fired upon by revolutionists. The Burgomaster and Governor's clerk were fatally injured. The police secretary was only slightly hurt.

St. Petersburg, June 11.—Today's sitting of the douma opened amid the greatest excitement and with the threat of a conflict.

M. Pauloff, military procurator, appeared unexpectedly in the chamber, and without having given any notice asked to be heard on military matters. As this was not included in the order of the day, considerable opposition was manifested by deputies to allowing him to speak. Mouromtseff took the matter under consideration before making any ruling as to whether Pauloff should be allowed to address the House. The President when he announced his decision declined to allow Pauloff to speak, and the latter thereupon left the chamber. The douma then took up the debate on the proposed rules for the House.

Train Jumped the Track.

Red Bank, N. J., June 11—The Central Railroad of New Jersey Atlantic City flyer, which leaves Atlantic City at 8:30 and passes through Red Bank at 10:30, consisting of a combination baggage and smoker, two Pullmans, and one day coach, jumped the track at Eatontown station about 10:20 this morning. It is claimed that the rails spread, but appearances would indicate that the switch was opened. The train was running nearly a mile a minute at the time and when it jumped the track, it ran along the ties for about one hundred feet and then turned into a ten-foot embankment. The engine buried half of its body in the sand. The combination, baggage and smoker collapsed entirely and lies a mass of wreckage across the tender of the engine. The next car, the Pullman, held together and lies across the ditch and partly across the baggage car. The rest of the train remained on the track. J. Egbert, the engineer, stayed on his engine and escaped with severe bruises. L. Hackett, the fireman, jumped and was mortally injured. A number of passangers were more or less injured.

The Longworths in London.

London, June 11.—Typical London weather prevailed today for the first tour of London by Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Longworth. The sky was overcast and rain threatened at any moment. Notwithstanding this, however, the American visitors were out early on a shopping and sight seeing expedition. The President's daughter and her husband proved to be as great curiosities for Londoners, however, as any of the attractions of the Metropolis were for the Longworths. Every place they went they were stared at and pointed out to bystanders. A host of kodak fiends beset them. The photographers were waiting for them as they left Dorchester House, the home of Ambassador Reid, where they are stopping and pursued them all about the city, "snapping" the visitors at every opportunity. There has been no prearranged programme for the day, as the Longworths went where they pleased. Tonight they will attend the first production of Mrs. Ritchie's Ballet L'Amour at the Alhambra. There will be a great outpouring of Americans who are in London to attend the performance and to see Mr. and Mrs. Longworth.

Motion Denied.

New York June 21.—Recorder Goff this afternoon denied the motion made by counsel for a new trial for Albert T. Patrick, convicted of the murder of William Marsh Rice, an aged millionaire. The motion was made on the plea of newly discovered evidence.

Patrick's reprieve expires on Monday next but it is understood that the counsel for the condemned man will appeal to the Supreme Court and this will act as a stay of execution. It looks, however, as if Patrick's fight for life is nearly over.

Steamer Aground.

Cape May, N. J., June 11.—The steamer Westernland with 1,000 passengers bound to Philadelphia, from Liverpool struck on Somers Shoals, four miles off Cape May about 10:15 this morning and is hard aground. She was boarded at 11 o'clock by the men in the skiff of the Pennsylvania pilot boat Philadelphia. There is no sea of wind. Life saving crews have gone to her in their yawl.

Death of Bishop Delaney.

Nashua, N. H., June 11.—Right Rev. John B. Delaney, Roman Catholic Bishop of Manchester, died at 3:30 this morning. Bishop Delaney was operated upon for appendicitis a few days ago and failed to rally from the shock. Bishop Delaney was born in Lowell, Mass., August 9, 1864, and was the youngest bishop in the United States.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 11.—There was a heavy tone to the trading in the stock market during the first hour, but outside of Consolidated Gas the losses in this period were small and unimportant, and a buying movement in St. Paul was reflected by a firmer tone all around the room, on which the earlier losses were not only recovered but in many cases material advances were effected. There was a fair commission business with most of the trading on the buying side and the disposition generally was to buy stocks on any concessions in prices.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, June 11.

SENATE.

William Pinkney Whyte, Maryland's new Senator, took the oath of office at the opening of today's session of the Senate. Hundreds of admirers from his State witnessed the ceremony, which was of the customary simplicity.

Mr. Rayner, his colleague, did the honors of escort. In a few moments was finally consummated one of those surprising freaks of politics, by which a man at eighty-two years of age, re-entered the Senate to fill by appointment a vacancy by the death of the Senator, A. A. P. Gorman, the minority leader, who, over 25 years ago, triumphed over him and took the seat in the same body held for several terms by Mr. Whyte.

The first Senator to greet him after he had signed the Senate roll was Mr Tillman. He was later warmly greeted by members of the democratic side.

When the majority and minority reports in the Smoot case were presented in the Senate today, Mr. Burrows, chairman of the committee on privileges and elections, gave notice that he would call up as soon as the condition of the public business permitted, the resolution declaring that Reed Smoot was not entitled to his seat.

Mr. Foraker, in charge of the minority report, joined in the declaration. Mr. Bailey, another member of the committee, announced that while he concurred in views of the majority, he held that Mr. Smoot must be removed by a resolution of expulsion.

Mr. Tillman inquired what the committee on finance was doing with his resolution calling for an investigation looking to legal proceedings against National banks charged with improper practices. He sharply criticised the financial operations of John R. Walsh, characterized them as "wildcat schemes."

Mr. Hopkins defended Walsh and declared that when some one lost money through him it would be time for complaint.

Mr. Aldrich, chairman of finance committee, explained that one part of the resolution had been disposed of by the passing of a bill prohibiting campaign contributions by banks. The other questions he said would be considered at a meeting tomorrow.

HOUSE.

The House today non-concurred in the Senate amendments to the bill for the preservation of Niagara Falls and the bill was sent to conference.

A joint resolution was adopted appropriating $80,000 to meet deficiency in the manufacture of stamped envelopes and newspaper wrappers.

Matters relating to the government of the District of Columbia were then considered.

Mr. Watson, introduced a bill appropriating $25,000 for the President's traveling expenses.

Mr. Cassatt's Answer.

President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, has sent his replies to the questions embodied in the circular letter sent out by the special investigating committee.

Mr. Cassatt denies that he owns stock in any of the coal companies doing business along the lines of the Pennsylvania railroad.

He gives details about various purchases of stock in other companies which, he says, he acquired at par on the then ruling market value.

He admits purchasing stock in the Pennsylvania and Cambria steel companies when the Pennsylvania Railroad secured control of these properties, but asserts that he never gained any special advantage therefrom; that though he placed orders for steel rails, the directors approved them.

He denies that he is interested in the Berwind-White or other coal companies prominently mentioned in the investigation, or in the firm of Cassatt & Co.

He declares emphatically that he never received any gift, gratuity or rake-off of any kind in virtue of his position as president of the company.

Curious Cause of Fire.

A match head in the lining of a coat, ignited by the friction of a gasoline cleaning brush in the hands of a cleaner at Crider's Sanatarium, caused a serious fire, with considerable loss, along Charlotte street, west of Granby street, Norfolk, Saturday forenoon. The total money loss will be about $4,000.

George Eckart, a tailor living over one of the burned places, lost everything. His wife and two children barely escaped with their lives. Policeman W. Jacobson was asleep, and, with his family at market, narrowly escaped being suffocated by the smoke. He climbed out of the front window. Mayor J. Davis Reed, of Portsmouth, and his mother are among the losers. Rene Calame, the cleaner in Crider's Sanitarium, where the fire started, was seriously burned about the hands and arms.

The attempt of the M. A. Hanna Coal Company to resume operations at its mines, at Dillonvale, Ohio, this morning, proved a failure, not one miner responding to the entreaties of the company.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and useless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give you One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggies, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Weddings.

An international wedding took place Saturday at noon at 1510 Park avenue, Baltimore, when Miss Constance Cazenove Lee, daughter of Mrs. Francis DuPont Lee, formerly of this city became the bride of Senor Don Luis Paster y de Moro, charge d'affairs of the Spanish legation at Washington. The parlor and drawing room were tastefully decorated with June roses and greens. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. E Russell, of the Cathedral, and was witnessed by only the family and a few intimate friends. The bride, who was attired in a goingaway gown of gray, with hat to correspond, entered the drawing room with her uncle, Mr. Archibald H. Taylor, who gave her away. She was met by the groom, attended by Senor Don Manual Walls y Merino, second secretary of the legation, and Mr. Walter Davidge, of Washington. A breakfast followed the ceremony. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and costly gifts. The bride is a very handsome girl, with charming manners, and is highly cultivated, having been carefully educated abroad, and has traveled extensively both in this country and in Europe.

Miss Florence Rae Eichberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Eichberg, was married to-day at noon at the home of the bride's parents, to Mr. Bernard W. Ehrman of Washington. Dr. Simon, of Washington, performed the ceremony. Mrs. Max Jean Fay, of Philadelphia, sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor, and Mr. Benoit Dreyfus, of Washington, was best man After a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Ehrman left for the north.

A number of quiet home weddings will take place this week. Thursday after noon, at 5 o'clock, Miss Melissa Lovejoy Hill and Mr. Malcolm Hill, of Baltimore, will be married at the residence of Mrs. Melissa Wood, on south Washington street. Thursday evening Miss Susie Herbert and Mr. George Brooke, of Cumberland, Md., will be married at the home of Miss Herbert's mother, Mrs William Herbert, on north Washington street, and Saturday evening Miss Harriotte Lee Taliaferro and Mr. Jeffry Montague, of Richmond, will be married at the home of Miss Taliaferro's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Boothe, on north Washington street.

Luna Park.

This is the great week of the season at Luna Park. Thousands have visited the park to inspect the airship in which Roy Knabenshue, the famous aeronaut, is making some remarkable flights. Knabenshue made half a dozen successful and unusual flights at will over New York, and was engaged as the big Luna Park attraction at an enormous salary, on condition that he should remain on the grounds six days, from June 12 to 18 inclusive, and that he should make two ascensions daily, weather permitting. In addition to the engagement of Knabenshue at $1,000 a day, there are two mammoth free attractions—Philippini's Spanish band in its second week in the musical shell, and the Herzog Camaras, three sisters whose acrobatic work is the marvel of two continents. The Herzogs make a specialty of head balancing, and perform some marvelous feats in this line, among other things tossing each other from head to head, and walking up a set of steps on the head to head position. The week of June 17 will see Seymour's Military Band in the Musical Shell, and Ella Zuilla, one of the world's most famous high wire walkers, will be on the hippodrome stage. She comes direct from the Crystal Palace in London. All the attractions at Luna Park are in full running order now. The big rides—such as the chutes, scenic river, carousel, roller coaster, circle swing and trip to Rockaway, are attracting small armies of people every night.

Tomorrow is Alexandria's own special day, with the local Elks. The Elks of this city are going to have a great time at Luna Park tomorrow. The park will be opened at 10 o'clock in the morning instead of 1 o'clock in the afternoon for their benefit.

Invitations.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation from the joint committee of arrangements to attend the joint final celebration of the literary societies of the Episcopal High School, near this city, to be held on Tuesday evening, June 19, at 8:15 o'clock.

We have received from Dr. L. M. Blackford, principal, an invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the Episcopal High School, near this city, which are to take place at 3 p. m., Wednesday, June 20th, in Liggett Hall.

With the compliments of the Alexandria Club of the college we have received from the faculty and the class of nineteen hundred and six of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, an invitation to attend the commencement exercises, which will continue from June 8 to 13. Gov. Swanson will deliver the address to the graduating class on the 13th.

From the president and faculty of the University of Virginia we have received an invitation to be present at the eighty-second annual commencement of the university to be held on June tenth, eleventh and twelfth. The alumni luncheon will be given at 2:30 p. m., Tuesday. The alumni address will be delivered at noon, Tuesday, by Rev. R. H. Massie of the Theological Semiuary.

Rain and Hail.

This city and vicinity were visited at the close of Saturday last by a torrential rain and a severe hail storm, accompanied by thunder and lightning. The rain was suggestive of a cloud burst, and the hail which mingled with the rain caused a roar which was appalling to many people. In a few minutes' time the streets were flooded and limbs of many trees were twisted off and sent sailing through the air. Part of a large tree was thrown across the railway track near the intersection of Wilkes and Royal streets and a railway crew had to cut it in pieces in order to remove it and allow the passage of trains. On south Royal street the water extended to the building lines, completely covering the roadway and pavements. The Wilkes street tunnel in the meantime had become flooded, and the water, which covered the railway track, rushed toward the east with the roar of a cataract. The heavy rainfall choked most of the sewers. The temperature fell considerably after the tempest had subsided, but the weather yesterday was sultry throughout. Shortly before nine o'clock last night there was another heavy rainfall, which continued at intervals for about two hours. The congregations in the churches were compelled to remain indoors until lulls in the downpour enabled them to reach their homes.

Police Court.

Justice William A. Moore presided in the Police Court this morning and disposed of the following cases:

George and Mary Brooks, arrested by Officers Smith and Bettis charged with being drunk and disorderly, were fined $5 each.

Jacob Brooks, colored, arrested by Officer Beach charged with assaulting and beating Rose Johnson, was fined $10.

Philip Wright, colored, arrested by Officer Beach charged with disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Two young men, arrested by Officer Ferguson and Special Officer Mullin charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, forfeited $5 each by failing to appear.

Jesse Cole, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Arrington charged with cutting Nettie Cole, was fined $50.

Isaac Edney, colored, arrested by Officers Roberts, Ferguson and Garvey charged with gambling and petit larceny had his case continued.

Accidents to Electric Cars.

The blowing out of a fuse on a Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon electric railway car at Thirteenth and D streets, Washington, yesterday about noon, frightened passengers, and did some damage by fire to the car before extinguished. The car was stationary at the time. The fuse blew out with a sharp explosion and set fire to the front of the first car. The few passengers on the car ran to the door and all got out unharmed.

A trolley pole of an electric train bound for this city fell Saturday night while the train was leaving Washington. The damage was slight.

Corporation Court.

[Judge L. C. Barley presiding.]

Interest in the grand jury term of the Corporation Court is centred in the Curtin murder case, and by the time the doors were opened this morning a large crowd was ready to enter.

The grand jury was sworn with Mr. James F. Peyton as foreman, after which Judge Barley delivered his charge. He enjoined upon the members the importance of examining into the sale of intoxicating liquors in order to see if the laws governing the same are being complied with, as well as those providing for taxation, and called attention to the laws forbidding the sale of adulterated and misbranded food. The judge also called attention to the murder of George Curtin last December and directed the jury to examine the witnesses which had been summoned and to take their time in order that a full report can be made. The judge in this connection said: "If such crimes as this can be committed in this city and the perpetrator or the perpetrators thereof go unpunished, then the life of any citizen may be in danger. This is the most important matter which your body has had before it for many years, and I cannot urge upon you too strongly the importance of a rigid and thorough examination."

Fifty-three witnesses are to be examined.

Mary A. Burroughs vs. the Knights of Columbus; suit for the recovery of a life insurance policy upon the life of Wm. J. Burroughs, deceased; jury and case in progress.

The grand jury at 3:45 o'clock had returned no indictments and were still investigating the Curtin case.

Personal.

Rev. Charles D. Bulla, pastor of the M. E. Church South, yesterday, at Ashland, preached the baccalaureate sermon at the commencement exercises of Randolph-Macon College.

Rev. Wm. J. Morton, of Alexandria, was in the city Saturday on his return from the home of his father, Dr. C. B. Morton. Mrs. Morton will remain at Dr. Morton's for some time.—[Fredericksburg Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bendheim are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Fischer of T street, Washington.

Mrs. C. W. Wattles and children are visiting at the home of her father, Dr. C. E Lippitt, near Berryville.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert D. Brockett, Mrs. George A. Mushbach, and Mrs. S. Magruder Dent left yesterday for Buffalo, Niagara Falls and Canada. Mr. Brockett, Mr. R. M. Graham and Mr. Julian Y. Williams will attend the Travelers' Protective Association convention in Buffalo.

Miss A. M. Chandlee has gone to Ashton, Md., to spend the summer.

Excursion Next Thursday.

The monotony of the average excursion is always broken when it comes to those given by the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum. This is accounted for by the fact that this organization has had eighteen successful years in that line which count for a great deal, when it comes to handling excursions. During all these years it has been the Lyceum's ideal to improve yearly on their excursions, and with this object in view, and this alone, the Lyceum has now about reached the acme of perfection; that is, at the present time. Perhaps there is no excursion that leaves Alexandria that is so solicitous for the welfare of its patrons as are the Lyceum's. Every little minor detail incident to the comfort and welfare of the patrons will be looked into and absolutely nothing will be left undone to make the affair a most pleasant one. Patrons of the excursion need have no apprehension anent overcrowding, as the commodious steamer St. Johns is thoroughly able to carry several thousand with comfort. Persons contemplating patronizing any excursion in the near future should not fail to attend this one As will be seen by the advertisement, the excursion will occur next Thursday.

River Notes.

The Serene, under command of Capt. Drummond; the Hornet, under command of Lieut Lewis, and the Restless under command of Capt. Wing, anchored off this city Saturday. The three vessels have aboard about 100 naval apprentices. The vessels left this morning for Norfolk.

The U. S. lighthouse service steamer Armeria came up the river Friday and anchored off this city. The Armeria is employed carrying supplies to the light houses on the coast. She left yesterday.

The schooner Daylight sailed from Chevrie, N. S., on the 5th instant with plaster for the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company.

The schooner Calumet, which recently brought rock phosphate to the Alexandria Fertilizer and Chemical Company, sailed today for Newport News.

Disorderly Negroes.

Late Friday night a fight took place in the "Petersburg" neighborhood between some negroes which caused considerable excitement. Officers Garvey and Beach soon appeared and arrested a colored woman named Rosa Thompson, who was one of participants. She was arraigned in the Police Court Saturday morning and fined $5 and in default of payment was sent to the work house. Officer Beach last night arrested Jacob Brooks, another of the combatants, and he was fined $10 this morning. Jesse Cole, colored, who had been arrested by Officers Beach and Arrington, was before the Police Court this morning charged with assaulting and cutting Nettie Cole. He was fined $50 and in default of payment will be sent to jail for 90 days.

The Election Tomorrow.

The general election for Aldermen and members of the Common Council will take place in this city tomorrow. One alderman and two councilmen for each ward will be chosen. Those who drew the long terms on September 1, 1904, will remain in council until September 1, 1908, and the terms of those who are elected to-morrow will not expire until September, 1, 1910. As has been stated, there is but one candidate against the regular democratic nominee in the field— Mr. Frank Evans in the Fourth ward. The polls will be opened in the usual places at sunrise and close at sunset tomorrow.

George Wood, colored, employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company, was badly hurt while at work several miles below the city this morning by a pole falling on him, inflicting internal injuries. He was brought to this city on a north bound Washington Southern train and taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment.

ROSENFELD'S.

If Tennis Balls Were Eggs How Careful We Would Be!

Hundreds of families go along every day exercising little or no care in the selection of their household supplies when they ought to be CAREFUL about the quality of goods; CAREFUL to see that the goods are perfect; CAREFUL that the price is not too high; CAREFUL that everything is as represented; CAREFUL that prices are not overstated.

There is one way of getting rid of this care and that is by dumping it all on us. We exercise such care in buying goods ourselves that even

Baseball

The game of baseball Saturday afternoon by a team composed mainly of Alexandria lawyers against the Mount Vernon club of Fairfax county was brought to a close in the fourth inning by a heavy downpour of rain and hail. At the close of the fourth inning the score stood 4 to 1 in favor of the Mount Vernons. The feature of the game was the playing of Police Justice Harry B. Caton, who held down first base for the Alexandria team. He figured in a fast double play and made a pretty catch of a low line drive.

The line-up of the Alexandria team follows: H. B. Caton, first base; H. O'B Cooper, second base; W. Snowden, shortstop; J. S. Douglas, jr., third base; J. Randall Caton, jr., left field; Paul Hulfish, center field; Noel Garner, right field; Lewis Duffy, catcher, and P. Gorman pitcher. For the Mount Vernons, Rice at first base, played a good game, and Richardson, who pitched for the winning team, struck out four men and kept the few hits scattered.

A Complaint.

Alexandria patrons of Luna Park complain of the fact that they are compelled to stand at the foot of a steep hill, without shelter, when waiting for electric cars. Last night, while a heavy rain was falling, men, women and children had to brave the elements and stand in mud until a southbound train arrived. Complaint is also made of irregularity in the running of trains.

Children's Day Services.

Children day services were held in the Methodist Protestant Church yesterday morning, and similar exercises were held in the Baptist and Trinity M. E. Churches last night. They were all well-attended and the interesting programmes which had been prepared were well-rendered.

Children's day services were also held at the Village Chapel last night.

Daughters of America Excursion

Safety Assured
WHEN YOU DEPOSIT YOUR MONEY WITH THIS CORPORATION.
Money out of Bank is subject to many risks. The man who has the reputation of keeping money in his pocket or hiding it about his home not only endangers his own life, but also the lives of his family. Money in a good bank is safe not only from theft or accident, but it is safe from the temptation to spend. We pay 3 PER CENT. interest, compounded semi-annually on all amounts from ONE DOLLAR upwards in our SAVINGS DEPARTMENT. The interest is added to the account each six months, when it also begins to draw interest at the same rate. We endeavor to extend to our patrons every accommodation consistent with sound banking and solicit both SMALL AND LARGE accounts. Why not open an account with us today?

TO THE OWNERS OF DOGS!

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
Alexandria, Va., June 8, 1906.

All persons owning or intending to keep any animal of the Dog or Canine species should come forward on or before and take out a license for the same from the Auditor. After the 30th of June all persons owning or harboring Dogs without the required license are subject to a fine as the laws on the subject require of $3 or $5.
JUNE TWENTY-FIFTH, 1906,

Complaint has been frequently made that many persons fail to take out their license, and that others pay on one or two Dogs when owning and harboring more, or who send such Dogs away during the summer months and bring them back in the fall.

Attention has been called to this evasion of the law, and policemen will report all such cases, and fines can be imposed upon those who fail to take out licenses after trial in the Police Court.

The police officers will be required to report all violations of this law.

In order to avoid any mistakes persons who make application for licenses would do well to write their names and number of residence, street, etc., on a card or paper when making application for their licenses to the Auditor.

FRED. J. PAFF, Mayor.

The following is a copy of Section 54 of the license law. "On every dog, regardless of sex, one dollar and fifty cents."

Taken at His Word.

When Rossetti was a student of art he one day happened to go with some fellow students to the east end of London. There at a wharfside inn he saw an immense canvas on the barroom wall. After laughing at it for some time and thus provoking the innkeeper's wrath the following conversation took place:

"Where did you get that picture?"

"Oh, never mind, young man, where I got it!"

"What price do you set on it?"

"More than you can afford."

"Indeed!" said Rossetti. "Now, how much?"

"Three thousand pounds," replied the innkeeper.

At this there was a loud burst of laughter from the young artists.

"Do you know how much I would give you for your £3,000 picture?"

"How much?" asked the innkeeper.

"Three pounds," said Rossetti.

"Done," said the innkeeper promptly. And to his amazement and amusement Mr. Rossetti found himself the owner of the colossal daub.

Be a Lightning Calculator.

Multiplication is the most important of the fundamental rules of arithmetic. In large accounting departments mental arithmetic is often used to a very large extent, and the one who cannot perform this task without resorting to figuring the long way on paper has but a small chance of gaining a position worth having. Here is one little lesson in lightning multiplication. Supposing you want to multiply 58 by 84. First, multiply units by units, thus: 4 × 8 are 12, set down the 2 and carry 1. Multiply tens by units and units by tens, adding the 1 to carry to the first product, then add the two products together, thus: 4 × 5 are 20 and 1 to carry, 21, and 8 × 8 are 24, and 21 and 24 are 45, set down the 5 and carry 4. Now multiply the tens together and add the 4 you had to carry, thus: 8 × 5 are 40, and 4 makes 44. Set this amount down in the answer, and you will have the correct result—4,452.

Up a Shot Tower.

"It was a strange experience," said the huntsman. "As I ascended the spiral stairs of the tower I saw shot falling, like rain, around me. The shot tower was 200 feet high. At its base there was a tank of water for the shot to drop into. If it fell on the earth, you know, it would be flat instead of round. On top of the tower was a huge boiler filled with molten lead. The manager ladled the lead into a percolator, a kind of strainer, and thence it fell into the cistern of cold water 200 feet below. It took it three seconds to fall. They made different sizes of shot on the tower by using different percolators—big holes for big shot, small holes for fine shot, and so on. The water in the cistern had to be changed every little while. It would have become so hot otherwise that it would have kept the shot soft."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

They Rarely Fell Trees.

Most of the Spaniards dislike to fell trees or cut live timber of any sort, and this fact perhaps accounts for the giant trees of California. The Spaniards two centuries ago pushed their way through Mexico to California, and, save the clearing of paths through the dense forests, not a twig did their axes chop down. Nor do the Spaniards transplanted to the new world ever destroy timber. They continue to build their houses of stone and mortar, at great expense of money and physical exertion, when timber in abundance surrounds them, out of which they could construct log houses, as did other pioneers, at a minimum of cost and labor. The Spaniard does not even fell trees for firewood, but picks up dead limbs as they fall to the ground or pulls them from the trees with his lariat.—London Express.

The Victoria Cross.

The intrinsic value of the Victoria cross, the most highly prized decoration in army and navy, is about 1½ pence. It was instituted by royal warrant on Jan. 29, 1856, as a reward of gallantry of all ranks, and the first presentation (of sixty-two crosses) was made by the late Queen Victoria in person on Friday, June 26, 1857. It is in the shape of a Maltese cross and is made to this day out of metal from old Russian cannon captured at Sevastopol.—St. James' Gazette.

Snow at a Halfpenny a Pound.

Snow is sold in the north of Sicily, where it fetches about a halfpenny a pound. It is a government monopoly, and the prince of Palermo derives the greater part of his income from it. The snow, which is gathered on the mountains in felt covered baskets, is widely bought in the cities for refrigerating purposes.—London Tit-Bits.

In a Bad Way.

"I fear that my husband will break down! He is suffering from brain exhaustion!"

"How dreadful! What are his symptoms?"

"He latterly keeps repeating himself in his excuses for coming home late from the club, dear!"

Why He Laughed.

Jenks—Why on earth did you laugh so heartily at that ancient jest of Borem's? Wise—In self defense. Jenks—In self defense? Wise—Yes; if I hadn't laughed so, he would have repeated the thing, thinking I hadn't seen the point.—Kansas City Independent.

You cannot induce a lower animal to eat heartily when not feeling well. A sick dog starves himself, and gets well. The stomach, once overworked, must have rest the same as your feet or eyes. You don't have to starve to rest your stomach. KODOL FOR DYSPEPSIA takes up the work for your stomach, digests what you eat and gives it a rest. Puts it back in condition again. You can't feel good with disordered stomach. Try Kodol. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For twenty years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons', Druggists.
